5) Multiplication Rule: If two events are independent then \( P(A \text{ and } B) = P(A) \cdot P(B) \)

Independence means that the occurrence of event A does not affect the occurrence of event B sampling distribution – tells what values a statistic takes in repeated samples from the same population and how often it takes those values